Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, From the South Dakota State Fair to the Custer State Park Buffalo Roundup, the month of September provides an incredible number of events and opportunities for photographers to capture in South Dakota; and,

Whereas, South Dakota's autumn panorama of color extends statewide from the intimate colors of Sica Hollow to the chalk bluffs of the Missouri River to the aspen-lined scenic byways of the Black Hills; and,

Whereas, Stampeding bison, herded by cowboys and cowgirls on horseback, present photographers with unique and unforgettable Old West pageantry during the Custer State Park Buffalo Roundup; and,

Whereas, The first-ever Black Hills Photo Shootout will bring together photographers from across the country to practice and advance their skills and to capture and share the beauty of the Black Hills and South Dakota:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 2010 as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Teresa J. Bray, Deputy
Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
